The fee for this mating is payable at conclusion of breeding. If no pregnancy results, a return service will be given to the same bitch on her next heat cycle, and to my male if available. If the above stud is not available, the kennel may substitute an equally nice male of their choosing. Stud owner needs to be notified within one week after the puppies' due date, if no pregnancy results, to be eligible for the free return service. One puppy whelped alive constitutes a litter. No cash refund will be given if no pregnancy either time.

The stud owner has the option of "1st Puppy Pick" in lieu of the monetary stud fee. "1st Puppy Pick" constitutes the first pick before any pups leave the litter. If only one puppy results from the litter, the bitch owner will be required to submit the monetary value of that puppy or stud fee and "1st Puppy Pick" for the stud dog owner would be forfeited.
